

LADIES' TAN BOOTS

$2.48

Special for Friday, Oct. 6th

125 pairs Ladies' $4.00 Tan Walkover and Utz & Dunn Button and Lace Boots, both low and Cuban heels. Extra quality, all sizes 2 1/2 to 6, good widths.

Men's Leather Lined Shoes

$3.98

13 pairs Men's Walk-over leather lined High Shoes, 5.00 grade, good widths and sizes

BUNDY & AMEY

45 Main Street St. Johnsbury, Vt.

HARDWICK

(P. A. Shattuck, Correspondent.) Judge W. H. Taylor went to Montpelier Monday where supreme court is in session.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dickens of Orleans were visitors at Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Montague's, Sunday.

Miss Gladys Robie was home from Montpelier seminary over Sunday.

Marion Sullivan of Newport was at her home here over Sunday.

Benjamin Riendeau has moved from a tenement in John Berry's house on Elm street into the Duva house on Granite street.

Reuben Cook and family of Burlington, who have been guests at A. W. Vant's, returned to their home the first of the week.

Mrs. W. A. Foulds of Passaic, N. J., is a guest of R. B. Paquette's and Charles Counter's.

Roland Sabin died at the Hardwick hospital last Friday. The remains were taken to his late home in Cabot, Sunday.

Several fans from here are planning to attend the world's series in Boston the latter part of this week and the first of next.

J. F. Dutton and wife of Montpelier were guests of relatives and friends in town the latter part of last week and over Sunday.

An enlarged picture of the late John L. Kibbee, a Civil war veteran and member of the Ellsworth post, G. A. R., was hung in the Grand Army hall in the Memorial building this week.

Messrs. Peasley & Wood, who recently purchased the Hardwick Steam laundry, are moving their household goods into the house on High street.

H. E. Burnap has bought the Murray house on Granite street and will soon move into same. Mr. Burnap traded in a farm that he owns in Calais in the deal.

J. H. Clark and wife and E. M. Davis and wife motored to Burlington Friday to spend the day.

Mrs. Annie Pierce was called to Northfield the latter part of last week by the illness of her daughter, Mrs. James McGladin.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Frechette last Friday morning at the Hardwick hospital.

Charles T. Pierce was quite sick the latter part of last week and Sunday, but is more comfortable at this writing.

W. S. Temple and wife and A. K. Johnson of St. Johnsbury were recent guests at the home of L. I. Bishop.

Llewellyn E. Parks and Miss Josephine Piblin, both of this place, were united in marriage Saturday evening at 7.30 at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Parks, on Main street, by the Rev. G. H. Redding, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, in the presence of the relatives of both parties. The young couple will reside with Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Parks this winter.

A birthday party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Ferris on Maple street last Saturday afternoon, the occasion being the 12th birthday anniversary of Miss Elizabeth Wright, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wright. The young people had a jolly good time, and with games and refreshments passed a very pleasant afternoon.

Eva Lyons has returned from the White Mountains, where she has been employed this summer.

Thomas Thompson, Jr., and Dotty Bardell arrived home Saturday night from Bristol, Conn., where they have been employed the past summer.

John LaValley and wife of St. Johnsbury were guests of relatives in town over Sunday and the first of the week.

Mrs. Dora McNall of St. Johnsbury was a guest of relatives here last Friday.

Charles O. Morse and wife and C. S. Cobb and wife started Sunday on an auto trip to parts of Canada, New York state and home again, reaching here Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Ted Ruddy and children have gone to Barre, where they will remain for some time before joining Mr. Ruddy in Cleveland, O.

Guy Knapp of Montpelier was in town the first of the week.

Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Dixon left Wednesday morning for their home in St. Mary's, O., after spending a couple of weeks here with relatives and friends.

Mrs. R. F. Clowse is spending a few days with relatives in St. Johnsbury.

James Whitney Bell has gone to Rutland to take a course in a business school in that city.

J. H. Clark unloaded a car of the new 1917 Fords, Thursday.

Harold Taylor went to Burlington Wednesday to resume his medical studies at the University of Vermont for the coming year.

Mrs. Emma Daniell was a recent visitor in Morrisville.

Mrs. E. H. Campbell has been visiting relatives in Barre this week.

Eugene S. Smith transacted business in St. Johnsbury, Wednesday.

Dr. J. Arthur Wark of Barre has been appointed city physician.

Ward's many friends here will be pleased to learn of this appointment.

Marie Christiansen was discharged from the hospital Tuesday and has returned to her home in East Hartford, Conn.

Roland Sabin of Cabot was admitted to the hospital Wednesday for treatment.

Miss Mabel Bridgman and her mother, who have been spending the summer here with Mr. and Mrs. Dorman Bridgman, started for their home Wednesday evening.

Dorman Bridgman went with them as far as Chicago. He and Miss Bridgman will go to Springfield, Mo., from Chicago for a visit to Mr. Bridgman's sister.

This is quite a trip for a man of Mr. Bridgman's age to take.

J. R. Stewart, railway mail clerk, leaves Wednesday for his new run from Groveton, N. H., to Boston.

Mr. Stewart's run all summer has been from New York to the White Mountains. He works six days and lay off eight.

Mrs. Dora McNall of St. Johnsbury and three lady friends visited relatives here last Friday.

The party came over in Mrs. McNall's car, with Mrs. McNall driving. Leaving here towards six o'clock on their return trip they reached Noyesville in a short time, but went over a slight embankment on account of the car's skidding. No one was injured though all were shaken up some. No damage resulted to the car and it was run home the next morning on its own power.

A party of Meadow Brook golfers from Barre came over last Saturday afternoon and went around and over the Hardwick course with several members of the local club. No match was attempted, but the local boys learned quite a little by playing with and watching the visitors.

John Black of the Barre boys, established a record of 18 holes, making it in 48. The weather was not very desirable for good playing.

Donty Bardell and Thomas Thompson, Jr., arrived last Saturday night from Bristol, Conn., where they have been working all summer. "Tommy" has resumed his studies at Hardwick academy.

Miss Howleson has moved from North Main street into what is known as the Arnold bungalow on High street.

James Riach has moved from what is known as the Halre house on High street into a tenement in the Trow house on Cherry street.

J. H. Brown has sold his house on Church street to Archie Kipp. Possession will be given November 1.

Miss Clara Touhey of Barton spent Sunday with Mrs. W. F. Scott.

Miss Katherine Lanphear, night operator at the telephone office was at her home in Albany Saturday and Sunday.

Dean Matthews is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Mathews.

Mrs. George Dubois, who was taken to the State hospital recently, passed away Monday morning. George Dubois, her son, was called to Waterbury, Sunday.

Mrs. Alvah Brooks of Coventry has moved into the Charles Wheeler house.

The weekly Red Cross meeting will be held at the Congregational vestry Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wadleigh and Mr. and Mrs. John Wadleigh of Augusta, Me., have been visiting at C. A. Dodge's while on an auto trip to Quebec and return.

C. S. Skinner attended the republican convention at Burlington recently.

Rev. G. S. Butler of Demarest, Ga., has been a recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Stowell on South street.

Mrs. Butler, his wife, passed away May 6. Both Mr. and Mrs. Butler have done a great work in helping to maintain Piedmont College at Demarest. Previously their work was in Atlanta, Ga.

Mrs. Ernest Green and son, Harold, and W. S. Green went Saturday night to Concord Junction where Mrs. Green is to join her husband, who has work in that place.

Miss Dyke visited in Barton Saturday.

Dr. and Mrs. G. B. Rowell are spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. Grant, in Pembroke, Canada.

Miss Ada Jenness, who has been spending several weeks with her cousin, Mrs. F. L. Leach, has returned to her home in Milton, Mass.

R. A. Bean and children, Eleanor and Hayden, spent the week-end at Beebe, P. Q., where Mrs. Bean is visiting.

The supper at the Congregational church parlors Thursday evening was attended by over 125.

ORLEANS

(Doris A. Spafford, Correspondent.)

Miss Marion Ordway was given a variety shower Monday evening by the members of the "Odd Girls Club." Sixteen were present and a very pleasant time enjoyed. The gifts, which were both beautiful and useful expressed the esteem of the donors for one of our most popular young ladies.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Newton who returned recently from a honeymoon trip in Boston were given a reception at the home of Mr. Newton Monday evening. They go today to Westfield where they will reside.

F. P. Gates, dealer in monuments of West Burke, was a business visitor in town, Monday.

Miss Elsie Skinner has returned to Norton, where she will be a sophomore in Wheaton college, this year.

The Book and Thimble club will entertain the clubs of Barton at the chapel of the Congregational church this afternoon. All members of the Book and Thimble club are urged to be present.

Miss Annie Gauvin is on the sick list.

C. L. Erwin was a business visitor in town, Tuesday.

H. B. Moulton of Lisbon, N. H., is here in the interests of the E. L. Chandler Co.

H. B. Smith has sold his interest in Smith & Jenkins' market to his partner, C. E. Jenkins. Mr. Smith has been a business here for 25 years and his many patrons will miss him from his usual place behind the counter.

Miss Minnie Stannard is spending a few days in Boston, Mass.

Miss Mary Blake was a Barton visitor, Tuesday.

A reception and dance is being planned for the members of Co. L. No definite plans have been made as yet owing to the uncertainty of the time of their arrival, but the affair will probably take place Tuesday evening, October 9.

Word has been received of the death of Mrs. Abbie (Williamson) Abbott of Woodsville, formerly of Barton, who was killed in an auto accident at Partridge Lake, N. H.

Mrs. Abbott was a sister of Mrs. T. Colburn and Mrs. Herbert Person, of this place.

J. H. Bartlett has discontinued his milk route.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Skinner accompanied by Mrs. Waldo Leonard and daughter, Dale, started on an automobile trip Monday, the latter stopping off at Tilton, N. H., while Mr. and Mrs. Skinner went to Brockton fair.

Mrs. Clarence Swett has been obliged to give up work for Mrs. L. E. Spafford, who is ill.

The ladies of the Congregational church who are interested in missions are invited to a meeting of the Missionary society at the chapel this afternoon at 2.30 o'clock. Reports of the meeting of the Vermont Branch of the Board of Missions will be given by the delegates who attended the gathering at Woodstock recently.

Thomas Colburn of St. Johnsbury and Mrs. Colburn and son, Howard, who have been at Barton for some time are at their home preparatory to moving away.

Miss Eliza Eaton spent the week-end in town.

Merle Colburn and Lynn Sanborn of St. Johnsbury were week-end visitors here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Titcomb, J. R. Titcomb and Miss Elizabeth Titcomb of Lyndon were among the dinner guests of the Valley House, Sunday.

J. H. Brown has sold his house on Church street to Archie Kipp. Possession will be given November 1.

Miss Clara Touhey of Barton spent Sunday with Mrs. W. F. Scott.

Miss Katherine Lanphear, night operator at the telephone office was at her home in Albany Saturday and Sunday.

Dean Matthews is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Mathews.

Mrs. George Dubois, who was taken to the State hospital recently, passed away Monday morning. George Dubois, her son, was called to Waterbury, Sunday.

Mrs. Alvah Brooks of Coventry has moved into the Charles Wheeler house.

The weekly Red Cross meeting will be held at the Congregational vestry Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wadleigh and Mr. and Mrs. John Wadleigh of Augusta, Me., have been visiting at C. A. Dodge's while on an auto trip to Quebec and return.

C. S. Skinner attended the republican convention at Burlington recently.

Rev. G. S. Butler of Demarest, Ga., has been a recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Stowell on South street.

Mrs. Butler, his wife, passed away May 6. Both Mr. and Mrs. Butler have done a great work in helping to maintain Piedmont College at Demarest. Previously their work was in Atlanta, Ga.

Mrs. Ernest Green and son, Harold, and W. S. Green went Saturday night to Concord Junction where Mrs. Green is to join her husband, who has work in that place.

Miss Dyke visited in Barton Saturday.

Dr. and Mrs. G. B. Rowell are spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. Grant, in Pembroke, Canada.

Miss Ada Jenness, who has been spending several weeks with her cousin, Mrs. F. L. Leach, has returned to her home in Milton, Mass.

R. A. Bean and children, Eleanor and Hayden, spent the week-end at Beebe, P. Q., where Mrs. Bean is visiting.

The supper at the Congregational church parlors Thursday evening was attended by over 125.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Keyes are picking raspberries from their bushes, which is rather an unusual thing at this time of year, as they are the second crop of the season.

Park Beede and Hennie Doyle were Newport visitors Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Doe of Providence, R. I., are spending some time at the Valley House.

Ora and Carol Lyon and Mrs. Merritt Nichols of West Burke are guests at E. L. Ely's.

A pleasant time was enjoyed by all who attended the social at the Congregational church Tuesday evening. The rooms were prettily decorated with autumn leaves and bouquets of red and green. The program consisted of: Chorus by the choir; reading, Mrs. A. G. Fletcher; duet, Misses Hazel Harris and Dale Whipple; vocal solo, Miss Marie Darling; reading, Miss Helder; instrumental solo, Miss Harris; reading, Miss Austin; instrumental solo, Miss Whipple. After the program was finished the people were invited to the chapel where games of anagrams, flinch, bunco and flags were enjoyed. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served and an informal sing participated in by the young people with Miss Beede at the piano. The proceeds were $18.10.

Leon Going of Enosburg Falls is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Going.

C. S. Skinner was in Newport Center and North Troy recently getting a carload of work horses which were sent to Skinner, Me. A carload of woodmen from New York were recently sent to that place also to be engaged in the lumber business the coming winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Pierce and daughter, Esther, are taking a trip to Burlington.

Oney Stevens is in Boston buying fall and winter goods.

Mrs. Frank Churchill, Mrs. C. A. Harris and Miss Ruth Churchill attended the funeral of Charles Dole in Danville, Wednesday.

Mrs. C. C. Trull, Mrs. J. F. Smith and son, Justin, of Keene, N. H., are spending the winter in Lyndon due to the improvement of Master Justin's health.

The boys of the high school have organized a football team with Earl Hardy as manager. They have a number of games in prospect among them being one with Stanstead. The girls are to have a basketball team with Miss Harriet Meyers as coach.

Miss Carrie Going and Henry Newton, both of Brownstown, were united in marriage Wednesday, September 27th. Leon Going of Enosburg Falls, brother of the bride, was best man, and Miss Mildred Ordway of this place, bridesmaid. The couple left on the 1.30 for a honeymoon trip in Boston.

Corp. Earl S. Webster is the first member of the V. N. G. Co. L. from this place to return home after their sojourn at El Paso, Texas. He returns to Burlington today, but will come back with the rest when the troops are mustered out, some time next week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Skinner accompanied by Mrs. Waldo Leonard and daughter, Dale, started on an automobile trip Monday, the latter stopping off at Tilton, N. H., while Mr. and Mrs. Skinner went to Brockton fair.

Mrs. Clarence Swett has been obliged to give up work for Mrs. L. E. Spafford, who is ill.

The ladies of the Congregational church who are interested in missions are invited to a meeting of the Missionary society at the chapel this afternoon at 2.30 o'clock. Reports of the meeting of the Vermont Branch of the Board of Missions will be given by the delegates who attended the gathering at Woodstock recently.

Thomas Colburn of St. Johnsbury and Mrs. Colburn and son, Howard, who have been at Barton for some time are at their home preparatory to moving away.

Miss Eliza Eaton spent the week-end in town.

Merle Colburn and Lynn Sanborn of St. Johnsbury were week-end visitors here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Titcomb, J. R. Titcomb and Miss Elizabeth Titcomb of Lyndon were among the dinner guests of the Valley House, Sunday.

J. H. Brown has sold his house on Church street to Archie Kipp. Possession will be given November 1.

Miss Clara Touhey of Barton spent Sunday with Mrs. W. F. Scott.

Miss Katherine Lanphear, night operator at the telephone office was at her home in Albany Saturday and Sunday.

Dean Matthews is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Mathews.

Mrs. George Dubois, who was taken to the State hospital recently, passed away Monday morning. George Dubois, her son, was called to Waterbury, Sunday.

Mrs. Alvah Brooks of Coventry has moved into the Charles Wheeler house.

The weekly Red Cross meeting will be held at the Congregational vestry Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wadleigh and Mr. and Mrs. John Wadleigh of Augusta, Me., have been visiting at C. A. Dodge's while on an auto trip to Quebec and return.

C. S. Skinner attended the republican convention at Burlington recently.

Rev. G. S. Butler of Demarest, Ga., has been a recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Stowell on South street.

Mrs. Butler, his wife, passed away May 6. Both Mr. and Mrs. Butler have done a great work in helping to maintain Piedmont College at Demarest. Previously their work was in Atlanta, Ga.

Mrs. Ernest Green and son, Harold, and W. S. Green went Saturday night to Concord Junction where Mrs. Green is to join her husband, who has work in that place.

Miss Dyke visited in Barton Saturday.

Dr. and Mrs. G. B. Rowell are spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. Grant, in Pembroke, Canada.

Miss Ada Jenness, who has been spending several weeks with her cousin, Mrs. F. L. Leach, has returned to her home in Milton, Mass.

R. A. Bean and children, Eleanor and Hayden, spent the week-end at Beebe, P. Q., where Mrs. Bean is visiting.

The supper at the Congregational church parlors Thursday evening was attended by over 125.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Keyes are picking raspberries from their bushes, which is rather an unusual thing at this time of year, as they are the second crop of the season.

Park Beede and Hennie Doyle were Newport visitors Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Doe of Providence, R. I., are spending some time at the Valley House.

Ora and Carol Lyon and Mrs. Merritt Nichols of West Burke are guests at E. L. Ely's.

A pleasant time was enjoyed by all who attended the social at the Congregational church Tuesday evening. The rooms were prettily decorated with autumn leaves and bouquets of red and green. The program consisted of: Chorus by the choir; reading, Mrs. A. G. Fletcher; duet, Misses Hazel Harris and Dale Whipple; vocal solo, Miss Marie Darling; reading, Miss Helder; instrumental solo, Miss Harris; reading, Miss Austin; instrumental solo, Miss Whipple. After the program was finished the people were invited to the chapel where games of anagrams, flinch, bunco and flags were enjoyed. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served and an informal sing participated in by the young people with Miss Beede at the piano. The proceeds were $18.10.

Leon Going of Enosburg Falls is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Going.

C. S. Skinner was in Newport Center and North Troy recently getting a carload of work horses which were sent to Skinner, Me. A carload of woodmen from New York were recently sent to that place also to be engaged in the lumber business the coming winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Pierce and daughter, Esther, are taking a trip to Burlington.

Oney Stevens is in Boston buying fall and winter goods.

district meeting of the 7th district, which will be held with this chapter about October 18.

The recent frosts have changed the appearance of our forests, the beauty of which is now increased every day. Lake Memphremagog from the observation of Pleasant street or Prospect hill is well worth motoring many miles to see. With beautiful weather and good roads this "Switzerland of America" is easy of access to many.

A. C. Clark and family have closed their cottage on the west shore and are occupying their residence on West Main street. Mr. and Mrs. Hazen, who have occupied the Clark house this summer have moved into the Hobson rooms on Bay View avenue.

Under the new schedule of trains on the Boston & Maine railroad, the "spur" train from Stanstead continues to run as in the summer, returning to Stanstead at 5.30. The mail train at night now goes through to Sherbrooke, leaving at 6.50 p. m., while the evening train from New York stops here. Other trains run about as formerly.

The candle-pin record at the Arlington bowling alley for the month of September was as follows: John Roberts, 117, 123, 124, total 364; Sol Pelkey, 114, 118, 120, total 352.

C. A. Davis was in Burlington Thursday.

John Brouette has resumed work for E. Lane & Son, since his return from El Paso.

Ernest Smith of St. Paul's school at Garden City, L. I., is visiting his parents here.

J. E. McCarten has begun to make repairs and alterations on the house in Prospect street which he recently purchased.

Mrs. W. B. Bullock is visiting relatives in Boston and Springfield.

A. H. Butlerfield of North Troy was a visitor in town Thursday.

In spite of rain there was a good attendance at the freshman reception at School hall Friday evening and all had an enjoyable time.

The Boston & Maine railroad is installing a new boiler at its car-heating plant in the north yard.

Mrs. Flora Jenne has accepted a position as assistant in the ladies' ready-to-wear store of Lee O. Drew and commenced her duties there Saturday.

T. H. Baldwin, who has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. G. F. Root for several weeks has returned to his home in Allston, Mass. Mr. and Mrs. Root accompanied him.

B. W. Wilcox, the new manager at Gilman's, has assumed his duties there.

A. E. Bishop of the customs office is taking a vacation of two weeks.

Mrs. Ernest French has their new house on Farrant's extension nearly ready for occupancy and expect to move into it in a few days. They have been occupying the Cook cottage during the greater part of the summer.

The last regular weekly dance of the season was held at the Yacht club Friday night. The club house will be open, however, until about November 1.

Mrs. Florence Lemoine is visiting in Boston.